- Presentation: Grants Overview      Mr. Chad Ostrom shared a presentation reviewing all state and federal grants. He gave Governing Board members a copy of the presentation which outlined all grants as well as the expenditures falling under each grant
- Presentation: Mentors Train &
Support All Teachers                Superintendent Ulloa and Mr. Ruiz introduced Teacher Mentors Petra Kester, Julie Borunda and Courtney Smith (the newest member of the team). The Mentors shared the various ways in which they support not only new teachers but all FESD staff members. Through their PD and mentoring they impact all teachers and improve our capacity as a District to address student achievement. They were thanked for their presentation and their service.
- COMMENTS/CALL TO THE
PUBLIC                                  • Angela Krenkel, Sun Canyon Principal, expressed her gratitude to Superintendent Ulloa for a great start of the new school year. She shared that the team of District Administrators was present at each of the sites and that this was a different but appreciated start to the year. Several teachers have communicated that they feel positive vibes from Superintendent Ulloa and enjoy her presence at the school sites.
    • Dr. Jennifer Quirk, Western Valley Elementary Principal, thanked Superintendent Ulloa, Mr. Ruiz and Mr. Ostrom for being visible at the school site. She recognized Ms. Ulloa for her strength, leadership and caring attitude for everyone. She thanked Ms. Ulloa for supporting staff, teachers, families and ensuring that all staff feel valued.

- Ms. Janice Irby, Santa Maria Middle School Teacher, recognized Superintendent Ulloa for showing support to all the teachers. She is a tenured teacher who wanted to share this was the first time she has had a Superintendent attend their Professional Development Day. She stated that teacher morale was improving and there are better relationships between District Office and staff. She was expressed her gratitude for Superintendent's leadership and commented staff members are feeling valued.
