1. Pablo Picasso Inspired Still Life (March 30- April 3)

Still Life

A still life (plural: still life's) is a work of art depicting mostly inanimate subject matter, typically commonplace objects which are either natural (food, flowers, dead animals, plants, rocks, shells, etc.) or man-made (drinking glasses, books, vases, jewelry, coins, pipes, etc.).

Create a Still Life using found objects in your home to draw. Create lines to separate colors from objects and background.

WATERCOLOR TECHNIQUES

General Tips: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use liquid watercolor to get the best results. • Always create with newspaper underneath so you can transfer to a drying area easily. • Try layering techniques for endless possibilities. 	Plastic Wrap <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Generously add watercolor paint to paper. • Press scrunched-up wrap over top & leave it to dry.
Rubbing Alcohol <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Start with wet paint on your paper surface. • Use a Q-Tip, pipette, or a clean brush to touch rubbing alcohol drops to the paint surface. 	Glue (and Salt) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Draw with white school glue and pour small amounts of salt over glue outline. • Touch loaded brush onto glue/salt. Let dry overnight.
Doily Stencil <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Paint over the lacey part of a paper doily (very watery paint mixture will spread too much under doily surface). • Repeat until desired space is filled. 	Rice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Paint paper as usual. • Sprinkle dry rice over paper surface. • Let dry overnight.
General Tips: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use liquid watercolor to get the best results. • Always create with newspaper underneath so you can transfer to a drying area easily. • Try layering techniques for endless possibilities. 	Wash <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Load your brush with plenty of wet paint. Smooth your brush over the paper with swooping strokes.
Dry Brush <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Start with a dry brush and almost dry paint. • Run your brush over your paper to create grass or scratchy lines. 	Salt <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sprinkle salt into a wet (still shiny) wash of watercolor paint. • The results will appear when dry.
Crayon Resist <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Draw with any color of crayon on dry paper. • Paint wet watercolor over crayon to reveal drawing underneath. 	Blot <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use a paper towel to blot up wet paint to reveal white paper underneath.
Wet-in-Wet <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Apply clean water to your paper. • Before the water dries, load up your brush with paint and touch it to the water. The color will spread quickly. 	Tape Masking <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Tape off sections of your paper with masking tape. • Paint over the tape and let dry. • Peel tape off and reveal white paper underneath.
